The opulent destination for elite shoppers – which opened its doors to customers in 2009 – Palladium, stands tall as the epitome of a shopper's paradise. Its irresistible ambience and impeccably well-designed spaces complement the shopping options that span from luxury labels and bespoke brands to high fashion, fine dining, spas and salons. Also on offer are their special services which include an efficient valet, Wi-Fi and a friendly concierge desk that add value to your experience. This year, the landmark shopping destination expands itself by adding renowned brands such as Lancôme, Inglot and Mont Blanc to its existing upscale profile which consists of luxury brands like Emporio Armani, Burberry, Ermenegildo Zegna, Chanel, Paul Smith, as well as premium brands such as DKNY, Steve Madden and Satya Paul, and a plethora of high fashion brands like Mango, Vero Moda, Super Dry and much more. It is this perfect mix of brands that gives Palladium its stately splendour. With a number of flagship stores and international labels under one umbrella, Palladium houses fashion from across the world, bringing conscious customers onto a common platform with a wide variety of choices that appeal to every age group.

Palladium's gamut of luxury offerings attracts many people from the city and the country to come and indulge in an exceptional shopping experience. As the mall gains popularity by the day with more and more footfalls entering to indulge in the shopping experience, we talk to fashion jet-setter Perizaad Zorabian and luxury player Nirmal Kolte, as they talk about their favourite destinations at Palladium and share how they'd love to spend a day at the shopping hub.

NIRMAL KOLTE, LUXURY REAL ESTATE BUILDER AND DEVELOPER

MY FAVOURITE HAUNTS

I'm not much of a shopaholic, but when I do shop, I head to Burberry, Diesel Jeans, Armani and if I'm shopping for my wife then I head to Gucci.

A DAY AT THE MALL

I'd start my day with breakfast including the chicken salad at Moshe's. I would definitely stop over at Indigo Deli for one meal and maybe end the day with comedy at the Canvas Laugh factory. I'm a complete foodie and need to eat every two hours so I guess I'd have indulged at every eatery by the end of the day.

FOR A GREAT LOOK

For formals, I'd head to Burberry or sometimes Thomas Pink for a shirt, Armani for their patent leather shoes and Daniel Hechter for a pocket square. I'm not picky when it comes to trousers because I've always had them tailor-made so I would probably get them from whichever store offers the best stitch. As for a casual outfit, I like the polos at SuperDry and for the jeans – Diesel Jeans are a favourite. The laptop bag I currently use is a Hackett that I got from The Collective. As for the belts I would definitely get one from each store.

PERIZAAD ZORABIAN, ACTRESS AND BUSINESSWOMAN

MY FAVOURITE HAUNTS

I love Palladium because it has a lot of international and Indian brands – all in one plush destination. Juggling two jobs, as well as doing my duties as a mother, I'm always caught up on time, so I find Palladium extremely convenient. It has the perfect mix of a variety of high-end brands. There are many young Indian fashion brands as well. Shopping at Palladium takes care of every taste and style palette.

A DAY AT THE MALL

I would shop the whole day at all the big brands, walk around exploring the mall, drop my bags in the car and eat at Indigo Deli. I love the restaurants there.

FOR A GREAT LOOK

I'd head to Zara for a nice dress, or well-fitted pants and a smart shirt. Zara's cut fits me like a dream. My next stop would be Steve Madden to pick up a pair of shoes. And for a bag I would head to Bottega. I love their minimal style and just can't get enough of shopping there! And I'd finish the look with a nice belt from Gucci.
